Caroline County Agricultural Fair Association

Code of Ethics

Each member and Trustee of the Caroline County Agricultural Fair Association agrees to abide by the following:

1. To conduct all communications and debate about issues of the Fair Association honestly and with integrity.
2. To facilitate the intent of the Fair to provide a high level of service and education to all attendees and vendors through appropriate and useful resources; equitable service to all; equitable access; and accurate, unbiased, and courteous responses to all requests for information or assistance.
3. To protect each user's right to privacy and confidentiality with respect to information sought or received and resources consulted, borrowed, acquired or transmitted.
4. To treat members, Trustees, attendees, vendors and coworkers with respect, fairness and good faith, and advocate conditions of support that safeguard the safety, rights and welfare of all.
5. To not advance private interests at the expense of others (conflict of interest).
6. To distinguish between our personal convictions and the affairs of the Fair and to not allow personal beliefs to interfere with support of the interests of the Fair, attendees, volunteers, vendors, and others associated with the Fair.
7. To act on behalf of the Fair Association only with the clear authorization of the Board of Trustees or an Elected Officer and within the limitations of Section 3.8 of the Bylaws.

NOTE: Only the Fair Manager is permitted to commit the Fair Association to a contract.
